Rev. J. W. Hopper, of Warwick county, Ind., is conducting a very successful meeting at Hartford's Central Church.

Partner, the great Frenchman, discovered that mischievous chicken cholera, and that he found that his mischievous chicken cholera cures chickens. He sold "no cure, no pay" by Z. Wayne Griffin & Co.

A little 7 year old child of E. L. Brown, living near Pleasant Ridge, had her clothing caught on the line last Wednesday afternoon. Not a word was heard of her until she was found Thursday at 2 p. m. Mr. Brown and wife were absent from the room at the time. The little girl was a student of I. S. Mason's school, and had just returned home.

We are informed that the Fordville Teachers' Association, which convened at the Ohio Spring school house on last Saturday was successful in every particular. The program was carried out with animated and interesting discourse. The attendance of the patrons and teachers was good, while the dinner was superb. The Fordville Teachers' Association is a success.

C. N. Gunther has resigned his position in the Central Coal and Iron company's drugstore at Central City, Ky., and has taken control of, and added a complete line of groceries to his already complete confectionery store in this place. Known to Mr. Gunther as we do, we predict for him a bright future in his new undertaking. His many friends in Hartford are anxiously watching his return to our town.
